

Welcome to Belvedere hotel!

Belvedere

is an architectural term adopted from Italian (literally "fine view"), which refers to any architectural structure sited to take advantage of such a view. A belvedere may be built in the upper part of a location so as to command a fine view. So Belvedere Santorini hotel is now re-presenting itself after an in-depth renovation affecting its interiors and exteriors.

This hotel is perfectly situated just 10 minutes walk from the center of Fira, perched on top of the hill with amazing views out on to the Aegean.

All rooms are equipped with state of art
–handcraft furnishing and all the modern facilities and private balconies which open to dramatic views.

It's a contemporary luxury hotel popular between honeymooners and all those that look for high quality hotel in a quiet and peaceful setting at a magnificent volcano view. A quick swim in the infinity pool, followed by a Jacuzzi and cocktails from the bar and you are ready to enjoy the famous Santorini sunset. If you are looking for Santorini accommodation, look no further it's the sort of place that inspires spontaneous marriage proposals.