

Belvedere Santorini Hotel

Belvedere Hotel in Santorini is an A' class boutique hotel popular between honeymooners and all those that look for high quality hotel in a quiet and peaceful setting at a magnificent volcano view.

If you are looking for Santorini accommodation , look no further, it is the the sort of place that inspires spontaneous marriage proposals... The hotel is perfectly situated just 10 minutes walk from the center of Fira, perched on top of the hill with amazing views out on to the Aegean sea and the volcano.

Belvedere is an architectural term adopted from Italian (literally "fine view"), which refers to any architectural structure sited to take advantage of such a view. A belvedere may be built in the upper part of a building so as to command a fine view”.

The management of the complex has taken extra special care to provide personal service and hospitality.